Email: etargleben@gmail.com

Phone: 571-213-0715

Service Area: Northern Virginia and beyond

Scripture:

“Plans fail for lack of counsel, but with many advisers they succeed.”

— Proverbs 20:18 (NIV)

Ernest (Ted) Argleben is the owner of Alta Vista CFO Services, a consulting firm providing fractional financial analysis and review for small businesses, along with guidance on a wide range of business and operational topics.

Ted partners with business owners who want to grow wisely and sustainably. By offering experienced financial insight without the cost of a full-time CFO, he helps leaders gain clarity, improve decision-making, and strengthen the financial health of their organizations.

What motivates Ted is a genuine desire to see small business owners prosper. He believes that when leaders are equipped with sound financial understanding and trusted counsel, they are better positioned to grow their businesses, support their families, and positively impact their communities.

Through Alta Vista CFO Services, Ted serves as a steady, trusted advisor—bringing structure, wisdom, and clarity to the financial side of business so owners can move forward with confidence and purpose.

Business for Life Spotlight: Brody Barrett

Target Client: Homebuyers, homeowners looking to refinance, and like-minded real estate partners

Email: Bbarrett@acmlc.com

Phone: 571-246-3913

Scripture:

“Commit to the Lord whatever you do, and he will establish your plans.”
— Proverbs 16:3 (NIV)

Brody Barrett serves clients at Atlantic Coast Mortgage, where he helps individuals and families navigate mortgage options that best fit their long-term needs. With a clear, relational approach, Brody walks clients through the financing process with care, clarity, and steady guidance.

What drives Brody is his love for the community and his desire to help people put down roots in ways that allow their families to thrive. He understands that buying or refinancing a home is more than a financial decision—it’s about stability, stewardship, and building a foundation for the future.

Brody works with first-time buyers, growing families, homeowners seeking to refinance, and realtors who share a people-first mindset. He is committed to helping clients feel informed and confident, providing thoughtful solutions rather than one-size-fits-all answers.

Through his work at Atlantic Coast Mortgage, Brody seeks to honor God by serving others with integrity, wisdom, and genuine care—helping families move forward with confidence and peace as they take their next step home.

Jon Farris is the owner of Datamark Systems, a technology company providing custom website and software development, consulting, and cloud hosting services for small-to-medium sized businesses.

Jon enjoys solving complex problems and building inventive, practical solutions that help businesses operate more effectively. His work is driven by a love for meaningful challenges and a desire to create systems that truly serve the people using them.

Beyond the technical side, Jon is intentional about building a healthy balance between work and family. He believes sustainable success comes from aligning professional excellence with personal priorities, and that honoring God includes stewarding both work and home life well.

Through Datamark Systems, Jon serves his clients with integrity, creativity, and diligence—seeking to build solutions that last while trusting God to establish the work of his hands.

Business for Life Spotlight: Ron Fleming

Business: Proclaim Cyber Strategies and Solutions, LLC

Target Client: Small and medium-sized businesses in regulated or high-risk industries that lack dedicated cybersecurity staff and need affordable, practical security and compliance solutions

Email: ron.f.fleming@gmail.com

Phone: 703-424-0366

Service Area: Northern Virginia and beyond

Scripture:

“The prudent see danger and take refuge, but the simple keep going and pay the penalty.”

— Proverbs 22:3 (NIV)

Ron Fleming is the founder of Proclaim Cyber Strategies and Solutions, LLC, a fractional CISO and cybersecurity advisory firm built specifically to serve small and medium-sized businesses.

With more than 15 years of experience in cybersecurity, risk, and compliance, Ron helps organizations identify vulnerabilities, design practical security programs, and mature their defenses without the cost of a full-time security executive. His work includes risk assessments, compliance readiness, infrastructure security, incident response planning, and human-factor protection through employee awareness and training.

Ron is deeply motivated by a belief that small and medium-sized businesses are the backbone of our economy, yet often the most vulnerable to cyber threats. He has seen firsthand how a single breach can cripple an organization—and how the right strategy can prevent it. His mission is to make enterprise-level cybersecurity accessible and affordable, so businesses never have to choose between protecting critical data and pursuing growth.

Through Proclaim Cyber Strategies and Solutions, Ron serves as a trusted advisor and protector, helping organizations grow with confidence, safeguard their people and information, and continue contributing to their communities with resilience and strength.

Business for Life Spotlight: Jonathan Friend

Target Client: Homeowners, boards, facility managers, and property managers seeking high-quality, sustainable outdoor spaces

Email: jfriend@nativeroots.us

Phone: 571

Service Area: Loudoun County and surrounding areas

Scripture:

“They will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream.”

— Jeremiah 17:8 (NIV)

Jonathan Friend is the owner of Native Roots, a landscaping company built on a deep love for people, creation, and community. Native Roots specializes in creating beautiful, sustainable outdoor spaces while delivering high-quality service through a skilled and dedicated team.

Jonathan founded Native Roots with a vision for it to be more than just a landscaping company. His heart was to build something rooted in service, relationships, and lasting impact. That vision has shaped both the culture of the company and the way it engages with clients and the community.

A defining expression of that purpose is Native Roots' partnership with Project Belong, a Loudoun-based organization supporting young adults aging out of the foster care system. Through fundraising, event support, and employment opportunities, Jonathan and his team are using their business as a platform to invest in lives and offer hope and stability.

At its core, Native Roots is well-rooted, service-based, and community-driven. Jonathan's work reflects a commitment to stewardship—caring for creation, serving others well, and building a business that blesses both clients and the wider community.

Business for Life Spotlight: Arlene A. Gaylord

Phone: 619-204-5759

Service Area: Northern Virginia and beyond

Scripture:

“For we are God’s handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.”

— Ephesians 2:10 (NIV)

Arlene A. Gaylord is the founder of Gaylord Executive Solutions, providing coaching, consulting, teaching, and facilitation services designed to foster personal, professional, and spiritual growth. Her work helps individuals and organizations envision possibilities, gain clarity, and move forward with confidence and purpose.

Arlene’s calling is rooted in stewardship. She believes each person is uniquely designed by God with purpose and potential, and she is passionate about helping others uncover that purpose and steward their gifts well. Through her work, leaders are equipped to lead with clarity, courage, and integrity—bringing glory to God in every sphere of influence.

Gaylord Executive Solutions exists to put faith into action by developing leaders who value excellence, character, and biblical principles. Arlene sees growth—personal, professional, and spiritual—as part of an ongoing partnership with God’s transformative work in our lives.

At the heart of Arlene’s work is servant leadership. She empowers others to walk in the light of their God-given identity, lead with wisdom and humility, and embrace the next chapter God has prepared for them. Every engagement is an opportunity to build up others for the good of His Kingdom and the advancement of Christ-centered leadership.

Business for Life Spotlight: Joe Grefenstette

Business: Greftech Consulting Inc.

Target Client: Small to mid-sized organizations (typically $5M–$50M in annual revenue) that rely on Salesforce or digital tools but lack in-house technical leadership; including real estate investment teams, professional services firms, and mission-driven organizations

Email: joe@greftech.com

Phone: 703-786-5581

Service Area: Northern Virginia and beyond

Scripture:

“Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Won’t you first sit down and estimate the cost to see if you have enough money to complete it?”

— Luke 14:28 (NIV)

Joe Grefenstette is the owner of Greftech Consulting Inc., a technology consulting firm providing Salesforce architecture, AI-driven workflow automation, and fractional CTO services for small to mid-sized organizations.

With more than 18 years of experience leading complex Salesforce initiatives, Joe helps organizations modernize their technology stack, streamline operations, and eliminate manual inefficiencies. His work brings clarity to complex systems, building scalable solutions that support long-term growth rather than short-term fixes.

Joe’s work is rooted in stewardship. Personally, he is driven to use the skills and identity God has given him to provide for his family and serve his community. Professionally, Greftech exists to help leaders leverage technology intentionally, efficiently, and strategically—so they can stay focused on their mission and increase their impact.

Joe recognized that many growing organizations need senior-level technical leadership but don’t have access to it. Through Greftech, he bridges that gap by offering experienced guidance, systems thinking, and practical solutions that empower leaders, simplify complexity, and help organizations scale with confidence and order.

Scripture:

“Commit to the Lord whatever you do, and he will establish your plans.”

— Proverbs 16:3 (NIV)

Tim Marlin serves at Marsh, a global leader in insurance brokerage and risk advisory services. Tim specializes in helping organizations understand, assess, and strategically manage digital and cyber risks in an increasingly complex and interconnected world.

Tim is driven by a love for problem-solving and thoughtful analysis. He enjoys digging into complex challenges and identifying creative, practical solutions that help clients protect what matters most and move confidently toward their goals. Just as important to him is helping his colleagues grow, succeed, and operate at their highest potential.

What sets Tim apart is his desire to bring clarity where there is uncertainty. In a landscape where digital threats evolve rapidly, Tim partners with organizations to think proactively rather than reactively—helping leaders make informed decisions rooted in wisdom, preparation, and stewardship.

Tim views his work as a way to serve both clients and teammates with integrity and excellence. By committing his work to the Lord, he seeks to lead with humility, diligence, and purpose—using his skills to bring order, foresight, and peace of mind to the organizations he serves.

Scripture:

“Children are a heritage from the Lord, offspring a reward from him.”

— Psalm 127:3 (NIV)

Valerie Schoenfeld is the heart behind Valerie Schoenfeld Photography, specializing in family and child photography. Her journey into photography began with her own children, who inspired her to look beyond perfectly posed pictures and instead capture genuine, in-the-moment memories.

Learning to photograph her own kids taught Valerie patience, creativity, and the beauty of authenticity. Those experiences shaped her style—natural, heartfelt, and focused on real connection rather than perfection. She especially loves working with families with young children and families raising children with disabilities, understanding firsthand that every child brings a unique story worth celebrating.

For Valerie, photography is about freezing moments that pass too quickly. It is about preserving laughter, tenderness, and the small everyday interactions that become treasured memories over time.

Through her work, Valerie seeks to honor families by reflecting their love and uniqueness with care and compassion—capturing not just images, but stories that will be cherished for generations.
